Dedicated to the Distinguished-Looking Young Man With the Corvette

We have dedicated our annual to . . .

. . . the spectacled man with the ready smile whose wit often inspires laughter from those around him

. . . a well-known campus favorite who is admired for his gracious manner, his understanding, and his grand sense of humor

. . . a person who is willing to listen to our problems and offer his advice

. . . one who enjoys teaching as much as his students enjoy being in his classes

. . . a "travelin' man" who spends his summers in Chicago and his winters in Wesson

. . . a devoted teacher who has enlightened our minds to new dimensions of the appreciation of the beauty in the realms of music

. . . the conscientious individual who was responsible for our band and Colettes having the privilege of appearing in the 1965 Macy's Thanksgiving Day parade, and being chosen as one of the 12 bands of the 196 in the nation applying for participation in that performance

. . . a gentleman who has dedicated eight years of his life to Copiah-Lincoln and Co-Lin students. Words cannot express the respect and gratitude of everyone, past and present, toward a man that has been counselor, teacher, and friend.

Planning the band and Colettes' 1965 New York trip, one of the many highlights of Mr. Wilson's career as director of the Co-Lin band

WE LIVED TO LEARN;
WE LOVED TO LIVE.

Camille, Jane, Howard, and Mike, as Student Association officers, discuss plans for the year's activities.

Youth tends to live for the present. Age brings reflection on happier times past, happier places known. With the belief that your days at Co-Lin will number among the best of your life, the staff presents for your future reflection this collection of your friends and your places.

For as long as you keep this yearbook, this school will be a part of your life. When phrases such as "remember how we used to . . . " occur in conversations, the 1966-67 school year at Co-Lin will be relived many times.

Before we leave, we present the 1967 TRILLIUM, a permanent record of the people and events that filled this year. This was your year consisting of acquisition of knowledge, making friends, club meetings, classes, "bull sessions" late at night, preparation for the future, athletics, and, possibly, looking for that "someone special."

All the work applied to this publication was for you, without whom this book would be impossible, and for whom this school was built.

"Would you like a room overlooking the pool?"

"I spend a whole lot of time, just sittin' and thinkin'."

First Days Develop Confusion

Meeting new and old friends, standing in endless lines, signing numerous forms, taking tests, having pictures made, moving in, haircuts, waiting for the first letter from home, and many other varied activities prepared us for a busy year.

Classes Develop Knowledge

Mr. Patterson makes a point.

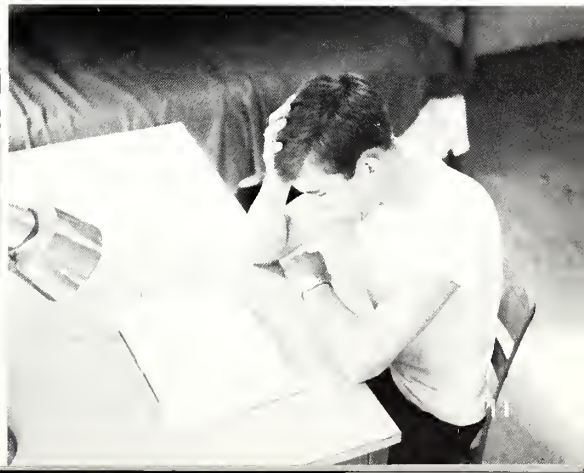
Woodworking

Accounting

The Trillium's cameras sometimes catch students in unusual situations.



SOCIAL HOUR
Casual, carefree hours are spent in Co-Lin's bookstore, sometimes called the Student Center.

In the year 1966, for the first time since World War II days, freshmen at Copiah-Lincoln Junior College were allowed to have their hair cut by upperclassmen.

Campus Life Develops Well-Rounded Personalities

Co-Lin's Expanded Vocational-Technical Train

Vocational Counseling

Welding

Vocational-technical training has been called the "door to the future industrial growth of Mississippi." Copiah-Lincoln Junior College is providing one very important key to open that door. Current additions to Co-Lin's training facilities have created a complex which is now valued at more than a million dollars.

Technicians who work with engineers and physical scientists are among the fastest growing occupational groups in the United States. In recent years, the needs of the nation's defense program, added to those of the expanding civilian economy, have greatly intensified the demand, not only for engineers and scientists, but also for the technicians and skilled workers who assist them.

To help meet this need Co-Lin now offers technical programs in building construction technology, chemical technology, data processing technology, drafting and design technology, electronics technology, mechanical technology, medical technology and instrumentation.

To upgrade workers and train skilled craftsmen, the school offers full time vocational opportunities in auto mechanics, general machine shop, tool and die making and welding.

Our President — Hardworking, Capable, Dedicated

President Fortenberry has dedicated 28 years of his life in service to Copiah-Lincoln. The list of his accomplishments is long. He began his record of service to the college in 1939 when he was appointed coach, assistant dean and instructor in science.

His leadership as an educator is evidenced by the positions he has held at Copiah-Lincoln, in Mississippi, and the South. He has served as president of the Mississippi Junior College Association, and is a member of the Mississippi Economic Council, Mississippi School Administrators Association, and the Southern Association of Junior Colleges. He now serves as a member of the Executive Council of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and as a member of the Mississippi Junior College Commission.

His most recent and one of his most outstanding accomplishments is the leading role he took in the completion of Co-Lin's modern vocational-technical complex. He has been instrumental in many other phases of the progressive growth of the Copiah-Lincoln Jr. College campus.

Co-Lin's Board of Trustees unanimously voted to name the new vocational-technical building in honor of him "in recognition of his foresight in planning far in advance, and for the tremendous amount of work and effort expended by him in furthering the vocational-technical curriculum, and for his untiring efforts in seeing to the completion of the vocational-technical building."

President Fortenberry is also a member of Phi Delta Kappa, national education fraternity, past president of the Wesson Lions Club, and a deacon in the Wesson Baptist Church. He is a past chairman of the Committee on Studies and Accreditation of the Mississippi Education Association, college division.

The Development Of . . .

Activities

Edited By:
DELORIS TERRELL

Co-Lin's Student Association, one of the most responsible student organizations on the campus, attempts to create and maintain standards of good citizenship, create opportunities for closer cooperation between students and faculty members, promote extracurricular activities, and maintain school spirit.

Working with President Fortenberry and Academic Dean B. F. Hunter, they make decisions concerning discipline for the welfare of Co-Lin students. Among the many responsibilities of this organization, the members are in charge of Homecoming nominations, class officers' elections, and Hall of Fame nominations.

Their work starts even before the first day of school, with their preparations for welcoming the new freshmen.

Members and sponsors work together to wisely govern student affairs.

Student Association Promotes General Welfare Of Co-Lin

Student Christian Association Coordinates Campus Religious Activities

An effort to provide a Christian atmosphere for students on campus is one of the main objectives of the S.C.A.

The members coordinate all religious activities on the campus, with special emphasis given to Christian Forum Week, Religious Emphasis Week, and the Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter programs they sponsor.

Mr. M. Ray Busby serves as sponsor of this active, all-important organization.

Committee

PHI THETA KAPPA is a national junior college honorary society, which has for its purposes to encourage scholarship, to cultivate friendship, and to promote cooperation among junior college students across the country.

Eta Omega Chapter here at Co-Lin annually sponsors a Christmas reception for the faculty and honor students, and holds initiations twice during the academic year. The Phi Theta Kappa sponsored a Valentine Dance this year following the Who's Who presentation.

Several of the members attended the state convention at MSCW this year. Several members also attended the national convention in Austin, Minnesota.

This year Co-Lin was represented in state offices by Jane Rawls, who served as state historian.

And Encourages Scholarship

Young Women's Christian Association Stimulates Christian Ideals

The purpose of the Y.W.C.A. is to discover through study and insight the values inherent in religion, and to make these values effective in all our human relations. The organization, for all Christian women on the Co-Lin campus, seeks to follow a well-rounded program of worship, study, and play.

Young Men's Christian Association Provides Christian Fellowship

Y.M.C.A. gives the men of our campus an opportunity for Christian service, both in formal worship and everyday living.

The organization is open to all interested students. This means that a wide cross-section of academic and social interest often is represented in the life of the Association. Students may join with no serious purpose except to seek friends, fun, and activities they enjoy.

This year the group sponsored a showing of films, to which they invited various campus groups. Officers are Robert King, president; Terry Assink, vice-president; Allison Cooley, secretary-treasurer; George Hall, S.C.A. representative; and James Smith, reporter.

Active Y-Teens Participate In Varied Activities

Sponsored by Mrs. John Landress, the Y-Teens could be labeled the "most active" club on the campus. Their functions include "Teacher Appreciation Day," and they are listed in many other special events on the campus, including Homecoming, parties, and athletic events.

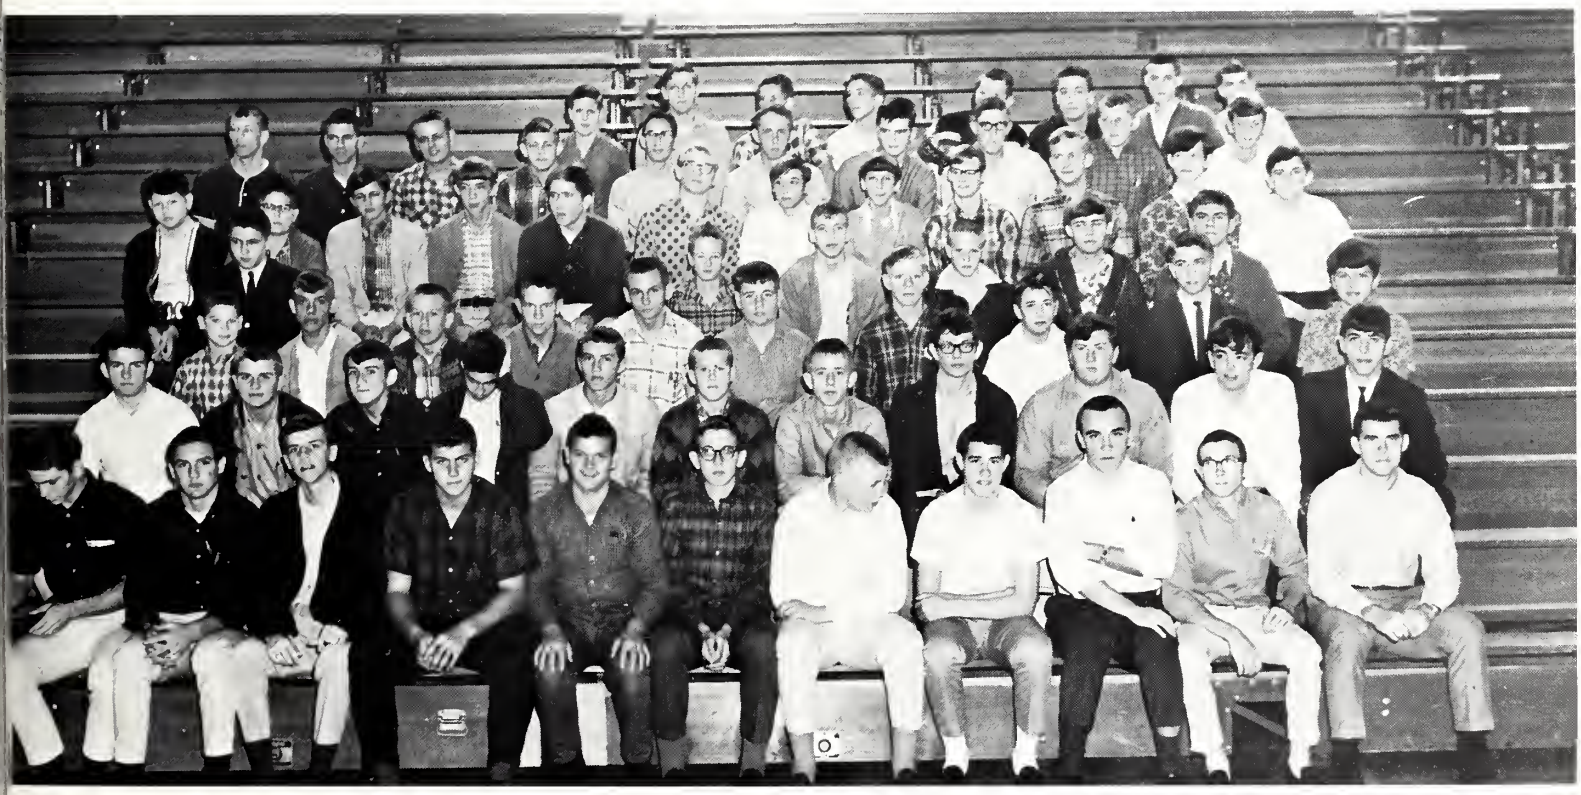
Hi-Y sponsors a sweetheart dance, sells concessions to raise funds, and emphasizes character-building programs in their weekly meetings.

Cobra Coach Bobby Britt sponsors the functions of this high school organization. This year members sponsored a car wash as a fund-raising project.

Hi-Y Promotes Worthwhile Ideals



Baptist Student Union Seeks Meaningful Relationship Within Academia

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL members include Joel Eavenson, president; Bobby Freeman, 1st vice-president; Betty Corhan, 2nd vice-president; Myra Lynn Allgood, secretary; Becky Coleman, worship chairman; Jane Ainsworth, publicity chairman; Bonnie Armstrong and Susan Buckley, social chairmen; Luther Boggan, missions chairman; Paul May, enlistment chairman; Dianne Gibson, unit organization chairman. Committee heads are Rita Page, Patricia Brown, Danny Wallace, Susie Harris, Elaine Smith, Peggye Little, Becky Newsom, Travis Canoy, David Derrick, Karen Smith, Judy White, George Furr, Jenny Kay Davis, Frances Leonard, Keith Daniels, and Bruce Papizan.

Because the university and college is engaged in the search for truth, of which God is the source, the Christian perspective is essential to the realization of the ultimate purpose of higher education. It is the purpose of Baptist Student Union to give meaning, purpose, and coherence to learning. B.S.U. seeks to relate the Christian faith to learning.

Some activities of the B.S.U. included a pre-school retreat, a welcome party at the beginning of school, editing the "Wolf Printz," writing letters to men in Viet Nam, "Operation Understanding," and their Christmas Party for orphans. Vespers and Noonday services are conducted, and regular council meetings are held each week. This year an emphasis is placed on the general B.S.U. meetings, conducted each Wednesday night.

Wesley Foundation Sponsor, Miss Zelle Weems, Honored For 10 Years Of Dedicated Service

Highlighting Wesley functions this year was the presentation of a plaque and letter to Miss Zelle Weems, sponsor, honoring her for 10 years of dedicated service to the group. The awards were presented to her by Mr. James Lewis, chairman of the board at Decell Memorial Methodist Church, Wesson, and Barbara Welch, Co-Lin sophomore. The awards were co-sponsored by the Wesson church and the Wesley Foundation.

The purpose of the ogranization is to provide a "church home" away from home for Methodist students and all others who wish to join them for worship and fellowship. The Wesley Foundation is the Methodist Church at work on the campus.

College Chorus Presented Enjoyable Programs At Both Area And Campus Functions This Year

The college chorus has added much to the cultural environment of this school year. Co-Lin's music-makers gave exceptional performances at Christmas, special assembly programs, area churches, and for civic groups throughout Co-Lin's district.

High School Chorus Presents Varied Musical Programs

The high school chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Johnny Russell, is composed of all high school students interested in vocal music. The featured group of the chorus is the girls' sextet. The entire chorus works steadily and enthusiastically throughout the year to present musical programs. Included among their various activities is the annual trip to the District Choral Festival.

The high school chorus members practice regularly to prepare for musical programs.

"Trillium" Staff Publishes Largest Page Most Expensive

Standing, Betty Matthews, asst. copy; Deloris Terrell, activities; Patricia Everett, subscription; Dianne Smith, faculty; Linda Jane Taylor, classes; Chester Greer, asst. sports; Larry Johnson, asst. classes; Allison Cooley, features.

Each year the staff attempts two things in the production of your annual. Their first aim is to produce the best book possible; their second is to be different.

Perhaps the most different things this year are the expensive four-color endsheets, the larger page sizes, and the embossed cover. Richard Jones gave the staff the outstanding cover and division page designs.

Size In History Of Co-Lin Yearbooks Annual Ever

The success or failure of this book rests, in the final sense, with your opinion. We sincerely hope you're pleased with our efforts.

Untold hours of selling ads, planning, typing, taking pictures, and writing copy went into this yearbook. Each year the staff sponsors the beauty and who's who contests, and for the past two years has sponsored a powder-puff football game.

EDITOR Karen Smith poses in a rare moment of relaxation. Karen had overall student responsibility for the success of the yearbook.

Chester Greer applies his creative touch to the sports section.

The Dramatics Club presents popular productions through out the year. The Co-Lin Thespians work hard with their capable director, Mr. John Landress, to create a variety of entertainment.

The first semester productions included "The Trumpet" and "Overtones" which proved to be two enjoyable features of the dramatic season. The highlight of the second semester activities of the Dramatics Club was the three-act comedy, "George Washington Slept Here."

Co-Lin's Claim To National Fame — The Co-Lin Show Band And Colettes

The Co-Lin Show Band and Colettes are widely recognized as one of the most outstanding parade units in the nation.

Under the direction of Mr. Clyde Wilson, the band and Colettes have received highest praises for their performances in recent years at Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade in New York City, the National County Agents Convention in New Orleans, the National Jaycee Convention in Louisville, Kentucky, and Dallas, Texas, the Cherry Blossom Festival, Cotton Carnival, and major Mississippi events.

They entertain throughout the year at athletic contests, parades, stage shows, and many other special events. This year the Colettes boast the largest number of girls in their history, thirty-eight.

CO-LIN 3 — HOLMES 13

In the season opener, the Wolves drew first blood in the second quarter on a 15 yd. field goal by tackle Jaris Patrick. Their lone score was set up by a 56 yd. drive, highlighted by a 33 yd. pass from quarterback George Thornton to halfback F. M. Oglesby. After a scoreless first half, the Bulldogs scored a total of 13 points in the second stanza.

Tallying points for the Wolfpack were halfback Buddy Newsom on an 85 yd. run, and quarterback George Thornton on a one-yard plunge. Both extra points were chalked up by tackle Jaris Patrick. The Bobcats scored 16 the first half and 15 the second half for a total of 31.

CO-LIN 15 — NORTHWEST 6

Freshman quarterback Keith Daniels and end Mickey Brown proved to be a winning combination for the Wolves as they downed the defending state champs, Northwest, 15 to 6. Daniels connected with Brown for two six-pointers, one covering 63 yds. and one 68 yds. quarterback George Thornton's two-point conversion pass found fullback Jack Lofton for the completion of Co-Lin scoring. The Wolve's hard-nosed defensive unit allowed the Rangers only 97 yds. on the ground and 88 in the air.

CO-LIN 6 — PERKINSTON 14

The Wolves showed one of their finest efforts of the year against the Bulldogs, who turned out to be the state champs. The two tallies for the Bulldogs were made in the second quarter. The Wolves' six-pointer was tallied by halfback Buddy Newsom on an 81 yd. kickoff return. Although inside the Bulldogs' 15 no less than five times, the Wolves were able to find paydirt only once.

CO-LIN 0 — EAST MISSISSIPPI 12

A fine offensive effort headed by a 58 yd. drive, and a 50 yd. sprint by Buddy Newsom fell short of tallying against the Lions. East Mississippi scores came in the second and third quarters of this gridiron battle.

CO-LIN 27 — DELTA 14

Homecoming was bright for the Wolves as they downed the Trojans 27 to 14. Halfback Buddy Newsom found paydirt twice. His first six-pointer was a 59 yard run behind excellent blocking, and his second was an 84 yd. punt return. Quarterback Keith Daniels found end Mickey Brown for the third score. The final T.D. for the Wolves was tallied by fullback Jack Lofton on a one yd. plunge. Glenn Yates, Dalton Johnston, Jaris Patrick, James Phillips, Paul Hughes and Keith Russell led the tough Co-Lin defense as they allowed the Trojans only 17 yds. rushing.

At the end of the first half the Wolves led 13 to 12. A 74 yd. march in nine plays was highlighted by a 47 yd. pass from quarterback Keith Daniels to end Mickey Brown resulting in Co-Lin's first tally, on a one-yard plunge by fullback Jack Lofton. The Wolves' second six-pointer came as quarterback Keith Daniels crossed the line from eight yds. out. After a scoreless third quarter the Bears pulled out a T.D. with only two minutes left to play.

CO-LIN 20 — EAST CENTRAL 21

Fullback Jack Lofton led the Co-Lin offense by scoring twice. Both on five yd. plunges, Lofton's scoring sprints came in the first and fourth stanzas. A one-yard T.D. by quarterback Keith Daniels and two extra points by tackle Jaris Patrick rounded out the Wolves' scoring. With the score 21 to 20 in the fourth quarter, a go-for-broke two-point conversion pass by quarterback Keith Daniels failed as the contest came to a close.

A six-pointer made on a 55 yd. pass from quarterback Keith Daniels to end Mickey Brown, in the first quarter, was nullified by an illegal procedure penalty. Co-Lin's leading yard gainer was halfback Buddy Newsom, averaging six yards per carry for eleven attempts.

CO-LIN 21 — PEARL RIVER 19

The Wolves ended the season in fine style as they dropped Pearl River 21-19. Co-Lin's first tally came as halfback Buddy Newsom raced 23 yds., behind fine blocking, for the T.D. The Wolves' second six-pointer came as Jack Lofton climaxed a 94 yd. drive with a one yd. plunge for the score. Co-Lin's final marker came as halfback F. M. Oglesby caught a 25 yd. pass from quarterback Keith Daniels to climax a 35 yd. drive. The extra points were tallied by tackle Jaris Patrick. Wolf defenders Dalton Johnston and Paul Hughes came through with fine efforts.

Mr. and Miss Copiah-Lincoln High School

DONA GRANBERRY and CLAUDE LOWERY

DONA GRANBERRY

Dona is one of the most active girls on Co-Lin High's campus. Her activities have shown her outstanding leadership ability and character. Her list of duties consists of being President of the Y-Teens this year, and Hi-Y Sweetheart and "Friendliest" her junior year. Dona's musical talents are displayed by her membership in the chorus, ensemble, and a folk singing group, the "Us Four." She has been on the track team, a cheerleader sophomore class officer, a member of the S.C.A., and band.

CLAUDE LOWERY

A popular senior, Claude has been a class officer for three years, and is president of his senior class. His participation in Co-Lin High's activities has brought him to the front as a leader in his class. Claude has been a member of band, chorus, and 4-H, and last year was chosen "Most Dependable." He is a member of the Cobra football and track teams, and was chosen captain of the football team this year.

"The Trillium" Awards Seven Staff Members

An annual is not finished in an hour or in one hundred hours. It requires preparation, thought, and hard work. An annual staff cannot be given the full credit for a publication, because the production involves the cooperation of many people, both students and faculty members.

But from the more than 40 students who join the staff each year, there are always a few who take the initiative, accept their responsibilities, and get the job done. Because of their outstanding, unselfish contributions of their time and talents, these seven students are chosen to receive the third annual "Trillium" awards.

Brought Back By Popular Demand (Anyway), Would You Believe The

OUR "DUBIOUS ACHIEVEMENT" AWARDS ARE PUBLISHED ONLY FOR THE SAKE OF ADDING INTEREST TO THE YEARBOOK.

THEY WERE CONCEIVED IN THE SPIRIT OF FUN; WE HOPE THEY ARE RECEIVED IN THAT MANNER.

THE IPANA ENDURANCE AWARD to those brave souls who endured 65 (count 'em) separate handshakes and introductions during the faculty-student reception.

THE HUMILITY AWARD to all the freshman males who so gracefully accepted their sophomore shearing.

THE LARRY HOGUE WORST SNAPSHOT of-the-year award to the photographer who made this picture. (the competition was really stiff in this category.)

THE GONZALES most-colorful-tennis-style award to James Dykes for this unique stance.

THE HAPPY MOTORING AWARD to "Coony" Case, bus driver of the year.

THE HUCKABY PHYSICAL FITNESS AWARD to this couple, for their dynamic display of youth and vitality.

THE H. L. HUNT young money-maker of the year award to Dale Greer, for his profitable photography "moonlighting."

THE CHARLES ATLAS award to Moore Turnbo, here flexed in all his awesomeness.

THE HUGH HEFNER BUNNY award to Becky Harris, with rabbit ears furnished by Jan Terry.

2nd World Premiere Of The Trillium's "Dubious Achievement" Awards
(With Our Apologies To Esquire Magazine)

THE JOHNNY CARSON 'FUNNY THING HAPPENED ON THE WAY TO WORK' AWARD to Dean Hunter.

THE PHYLLIS DILLER female humorist of the year award to Diane Payne, head cheerleader, for her witty remarks during pep rallies, such as "Who put the cement in my deodorant?"

THE RED BADGE OF COURAGE to the 42 lovely young beauty contestants who braved the contest interviews. (Need any help pinning them on?)

THE CUTEST KID ON CAMPUS AWARD to Karen Mullen, pictured in Mr. Hogue's apartment, singing "Santa Claus Is Coming To Town." Runner-ups (nothing personal) were all the other faculty children. (Don't tell anyone that Mr. Hogue invites good-looking young girls into his rooms, OK?

THE WORLD'S OLDEST TEENAGER AWARD to Mr. Durr Walker, who defeated Mr. Russell for the honor this year.

THE "BIG COKE" AWARD to the bookstore crew, minus Eddie Thompson, for patience in service to "customers."

THE TOGERTHERNESS AWARD — Need we say more?

THE LADY CLAIROL AWARD to this, because only "its" hairdresser knows for sure.

THE MAT DILLON AWARD, to Mr. Forest Case, for his single-armed citizen's arrest of those Southwest students who invaded our campus before the football game.

THE SMOKEY BARE AWARD to the girl whose laundry caught on fire in the school dryer.

THE DALE CARNEGIE conversationalist of the year award to Jack Tousinou.

THE ALFRED E. NEWMAN lookalike contest award to Joel Eavenson.
